LCBDD president elected to statewide post

NEWARK -- David Wigginton, president of the Board of Directors for the Licking County Board of Developmental Disabilities (LCBDD), recently was elected to serve as secretary of the Board of Trustees of the Ohio Association of County Boards Serving People with Developmental Disabilities (OACB).

Wigginton has served on the OACB Board of Trustees for one year, and the LCBDD Board of Directors for five years. The OACB membership includes all 88 county boards of developmental disabilities.

Wigginton is a Newark attorney with Schaller, Campbell & Untied. He has a long history of serving local community organizations. He has served on the Board of Directors for the Licking County United Way, and as board president of Mental Health America of Licking County.

The LCBDD provides comprehensive services to more than 1,300 individuals with developmental disabilities, and their families. The agency offers early intervention services to babies and toddlers; support services and service coordination to school-age children; adult services at LICCO Inc., Heath; residential supports; and transportation services. The LCBDD is nationally accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF) for providing high-quality services to individuals with disabilities and their families.
