

*Looking for connections with other family members?
Looking for ways to get involved in advocacy and action?
Want to have a voice in defining quality services?*

YOU'RE INVITED!

WHAT: Third meeting of the REGIONAL FAMILY ADVISORY COUNCIL for southeast Ohio

WHO: Family members from Athens, Fairfield, Hocking, Licking, Perry, Pickaway and Vinton Counties, representing individuals with all types of developmental disabilities

WHEN: Tuesday, March 17, 6:00 to 8:00 pm

TOPIC: The future — as you want to see it — for people with disabilities

WHERE: Art and Clay on Main, 150 West Main Street, Lancaster, Ohio 43130

DIRECTIONS:

From the south and east—Follow 33 West to Route 22 Main Street, turn right

From the north and west—Follow 33 East to Route 22 Main Street, turn left

From there —

- Follow Main Street to the second block, past Columbus Street and before Broad Street;
- Look for Art & Clay on Main on the right side of the street.
- Parking is available on the street, behind Art & Clay on Main, or next to the PNC Bank.

*Refreshments provided by the Down Syndrome
Association of Central Ohio*

TO RSVP, PLEASE CONTACT:

Vikki Clark
740-652-7220

Vclark@FairfieldDD.com

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Michelle Dexter
740-652-7220

Mdexter@FairfieldDD.com

It's no blarney!

We want to know your thoughts about a bright future for people with disabilities. This will help the Fairfield County Board of Developmental Disabilities in its strategic planning process for the next five years. If you live in another county, this session will prepare you to give input for your county's planning process, and you'll have a chance to hear from other family advocates from the region.