LICCO welcomes new board members

HEATH – LICCO Inc. recently welcomed three new members to its Board of Directors. All three joined the board in February with first terms expiring in January 2012. They are:

- Linda Linham of Newark is a long-time marketing executive. She owns Successful Ventures LLC, a business consulting firm.

Linham is a native of Coshocton County and has worked in cities throughout the United States.

- Pamela Ondrik of Pataskala has an adult son who works at LICCO. She moved to Licking County from Maryland in 2003.

Ondrik is assistant treasurer for The Jeffrey Co. in Columbus.

- Sheri White is a human resources coordinator for The GolfWorks, a company that has contracted with LICCO for many years.

White is a resident of Newark.

Linham, Ondrik and White join the other six members already seated on the LICCO Board: Zoe Lattimer, Melanie Spangler, John Gutmann, Leland Lescalleet, Jim Johnson and Doug Wills.

LICCO Inc. is a nonprofit business that provides work opportunities to individuals with developmental disabilities. LICCO works with the Licking County Board of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities to provide opportunities that promote independence.
