“Services and Supports”

Information will be shared on services and supports that are available to families of children with disabilities from local schools and from state and local agencies. We will also be discussing the difference between a service and support and how to determine what services and supports your child may need.

Presented by: Colleen Miller,

Statewide Training Coordinator/Trainer for Ohio Coalition for Children with Disabilities

Colleen has been with OCECD since 1997. She has served as an Information Specialist in five north central counties and as Statewide Early Childhood Coordinator. She currently serves as Statewide Training Coordinator where she develops training materials, conducts trainings to parents and professionals and supports the 11 advocate/trainers at OCECD. Her background and experience is in the field of Child Development and she is currently pursuing her bachelor's degree Behavioral Psychology. She is married and has three children and five grandchildren.

Program will be the first hour of the meeting and parent sharing the second hour.
